

DALTRON

Daltron Electronics Ltd is a leading supplier of IT Systems and Services in Papua New Guinea, employing over 150 staff. The Software Development & Support section is currently in a growth phase and has a vacancy for the following position;

Position: Web Designer/Programmer

Key responsibilities will include;

- Preparations of proposal for clients and managing these web design projects from inception through to implementation.
- Post implementation support and consultancy on web related matters.
- Monitor and maintain the Daltron website and intranet.
- Provide training and procedural documentation to Daltron users as required.
- Programming and design of all web page elements including layout, graphics, content, management, supporting databases, interfaces to external systems etc.
- Continually monitor available web design tools, software, and technology in order to maintain a competitive edge in terms of services offered to our web clients.
- Review internal project management, methodology, and design standards.

Preferred skills and experience;

- Minimum of two years experience designing and implementing web solutions including experience in content management systems and supporting database design.
- Excellent graphic design skills in contemporary software applications and design tools.
- Good understanding of web infrastructure, and security requirements.
- Customer focused with sound communication skills when dealing with internal and external customers.
- Experience in eCommerce, online shopping, secure billing and payment systems would be an advantage.

Applicant should be ideally competent in any of the following;

- Dreamweaver, Coldfusion, Fireworks, Flash, Frontpage.
- .NET and ASP.NET, MSSQL, HTML, XML, PHP.
- Adobe Photoshop.
- MS Office applications including Frontpage, Publisher, Access, MS Project.
- Experience in 3D animation techniques and tools would be an advantage.

Written applications with your CV should be posted or emailed to the address below no later than Friday 12 May 2006.

Software Development & Support Manager

P.O Box 1711, Boroko. NCD jobs@daltron.com.pg
or by fax 325 6558

DALTRON